

Central Kentucky's Favorite Lawyer

I'm very happy to announce that I was voted Lexington and Central Kentucky's "favorite lawyer" in the Lexington Herald-Leader's 2008 Reader's Choice Awards! People all over the region voted for their favorites in a variety of categories, and I am proud to have been chosen as favorite lawyer.

This really means a lot to me, and I want to give a big "shout out" to everyone who voted for me. I will try to live up to the title. I really do try to be the "people's lawyer". I don't work for big insurance companies, because they don't need my help. They have armies of lawyers working for them, and some of'em are smarter than me. But they aren't more hard-headed than me, and I promise you they don't care more than me.

Nothing makes me madder than seeing an average, everyday person get chewed up by the system, just because they don't have connections. What I do is give you a voice that will be heard.

You know what I'm talking about: Working folks who get hurt on the job, and get nothing but "runaround" from workers comp. People injured in car wrecks, who get ripped off and taken advantage of by the insurance company. Disabled people who lose their Social Security claim just because they don't know how to win the case.

Trying do with an injury case by yourself can make you feel stupid, and worse, it can make you lose. Here at my firm, we will talk to you for free about your case, and if we think we can help, we'll be proud to serve as your lawyer. ■
